Midnight Voices John Saul

John Saul, the undisputed master of family based terror, pitches this story in the city centre, an unusual urban setting for him. What remains is the same brooding horror, as another family unit is thrust in to circumstances beyond their comprehension. The first half of Midnight Voices is slow, deliberately so, and all the better for it.

Midnight Voices by John Saul - Goodreads

John Saul has been around quite awhile, his one-a-year approach to literature sometimes approaching a mechanical, assembly line construction. Midnight Voices is one of Saul's least creative efforts to date. In fact, Saul seems unable to determine whether he wants the voice of Hawthorne's "Dr. Heidegger's Experiment" or Stoker's Dracula.
