When we arrived outside the small , reservation town of Lapwai, I was a complete write-off. There was no hope left for me. I pushed and tried and projected and did what I could to get control back but I was too tired and too weak to be any threat. I spent the entire car ride trapped in my body and under the demon's rule.

Slap my hand for that, I feel awful about it! Karina's books are definitely the ones I look forward to the most, and On Demon Wings definitely didn't disappoint. Although, I have to say, when an author requests that you refrain from death threats until you finish reading, you really do have to wonder what you're in for!

Book Review: On Demon Wings (Experiment In Terror ...

Yep, On Demon Wings is reminiscent of The Exorcist and actually fairly creepy. This installment finds Perry possessed by both the vengeful ghost of Abby, Dex's dead ex. girlfriend; and a demon. Good Times!

She's a strong girl, and even though she suffers from relatable insecurities, there's only so much one heart can take. And Dex pushed her WAY too far this time. And at the start of On Demon Wings, we find Perry exactly as we would expect her. Lost. Heartbroken. Attempting to heal. To put it mildly, December had been a hell of a month.
