Mercy Blade is the third in the Jane Yellowrock series, but the first in the series that I've read. It's also decidedly not a romance. It's also decidedly not a romance. Hunter does a good job introducing all the key players, as well as providing adequate background, early in the story so I felt invested in the novel fairly quickly.

Review: Mercy Blade - That's What I'm Talking About...

(Fingers crossed) The Plot: Like the other two books in the series, Mercy Blade is full of action, mystery and a touch of romance. There's humor, horror, blood and tearful moments. The Series: I'm now 3 books into the Jane Yellowrock series and I'm still in love with the heroine and the world.
