Nadirs by Herta Müller, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

The Passport and Nadirs by Herta Müller. The Passport is a 90-page novel about a miller, Windisch, a Swab, or ethnic German, who applies for a passport to leave Romania. That's all in the way of plot or narrative impetus. The style is as clipped as that of Nadirs and the setting is the same: rural Romania.

The Passport and Nadirs by Herta Müller | Book review

Herta Müller's Nadirs: Poetry (In Translation) ... When Herta Müller was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2009, I admit that I rolled my eyes in exasperation and thought, another obscure European fiction writer!?, when there are so many others who deserve this global honor, and could use the money on top of it? (I was, however, glad ...

Nadirs by Herta Muller - AbeBooks

Nadirs is a lovely book. A collage of memories, beautiful, haunting, fractured, and austere. My beef is with the Bison edition. I read Nadirs side-by-side with the German language version. Passages, beautiful passages of the book in English are completely omitted. Whether through poetic license or just negligence, the omissions are inexcusable.
