Mourning Diary Quotes. ... — Roland Barthes, Mourning Diary. 2 likes. Like “People tell you to keep your "courage" up. But the time for courage is when she was sick, when I took care of her and saw her suffering, her sadness, and when I had to conceal my tears. Constantly one had to make a decision, put on a mask and that was courage.

‘Mourning Diary’ by Roland Barthes, a Son’s Grief - The ...

In Mourning Diary, Roland Barthes disrobes prose writing of its non-essentials in order to get to the crux, the heart of the matter: ironically an “anti-prose” stratagem. The nature of the prosaic is designed, in part, to flatten feeling, which Barthes revitalizes by taking away everything but his grief, his suffering, over his maman’s death.
