The course is an introduction to epistemological, methodological, and political aspects to the production of knowledge in contemporary times. The course will centre around two instruments: (1) A set of published papers and knowledge artefacts which will be analysed i.e. to function as models and (2) The design and execution of a dummy research project.

Outsourcing is an agreement in which one company hires another company to be responsible for a planned or existing activity that is or could be done internally, and sometimes involves transferring employees and assets from one firm to another.. The term outsourcing, which came from the phrase outside resourcing, originated no later than 1981. The concept, which The Economist says

The Atlantic has an article decrying the fact that economists are refusing to give behavioral economics a bigger role in introductory economics courses. I'm going to argue that this oversight is actually appropriate, even if behavioral economics provides many true observations about behavior. The core ideas of economics are extremely counterintuitive and are not accepted [...]
