Rue and Eric are just so adorable and the combo of Piper Vaughn and M.J. O'Shea is just something that has magic in it. This time though, I didn't quite see that magic from One Small Thing. Dustin's character came off a bit whiny with very low self-esteem.

I am a huge fan of this series and I admit right off that I am a total fangirl for the main character in One True Thing, Dusty Davis. I fell in love with him as a secondary character in One Small Thing and have eagerly awaited the sequel where Dusty would finally get his much sought after happily-ever-after. I have (to date) read close to 500 books or short stories in the M/M genre and Dusty ...

No doubt this sequel, as I mentioned in the opening paragraph, may have hit the mark for you. Unfortunately One True Thing left me a bit unsatisfied. However you found it, once again Piper Vaughn and M. J. O'Shea have written a sweet little love story that simply needed some final editing to make it a really worthy sequel.

One True Thing (1998) - IMDb

I have known plenty of nelly guys in my life, and as I've repeatedly noted, I'm no model of butchness myself, and never was. I purposely picked up "One True Thing" because the specific historic horrors of this moment were getting to me and crushing my feeble attempts at Christmas spirit. And this book delivers.
