Step 1: Become an expert. For this focus area, you'll want to gain a basic understanding about the Great Migration. For this, I'd use the History Channel. Once you've understood the broad strokes, use the following links to study the Great Migration through Jacob Lawrence's art. What do we learn through the art that we don't necessarily get from reading about the Great Migration?

The Great Migration - Native Son - Richard Wright

Richard Nathaniel Wright (September 4, 1908 – November 28, 1960) was an American author of novels, short stories, poems, and non-fiction. Much of his literature concerns racial themes, especially related to the plight of African Americans during the late 19th to mid-20th centuries, who suffered discrimination and violence in the South and the North.
