Now You See Me, (not related to the movie of the same name), follows Lacey, a police constable as she helps a investigative team track down a serial killer. This is an interesting one. I did not really like it to start with, and then there was a portion where I thought it was a 5star book before it came back down towards the end- so I end up at ...

There are a number of strong characters in Now You See Me. Bolton also brings DI Dana Tulloch, a character from Sacrifice, back in this book. I liked Tulloch in the first book and it was great to have her return. Lacey Flint is the main character in Now You See Me and I found her both engaging and well-developed.
