Mrs Kimble Jennifer Haigh

Praise for Mrs. Kimble “ It’s rare that a novelist offers both page-turning linear momentum and graceful stylistic arabesques. Jennifer Haigh gives her readers both in Mrs. Kimble, the tale of three complex women and shrewd, cold-blooded Ken Kimble, who married them all in the course of four decades.

MRS. KIMBLE — Jennifer Haigh

Jennifer Haigh's debut novel covers a period of 25 years, during which Ken Kimble weaves his way into the lives of three different women, all of whom are needy, or damaged and desperate in some way. However, the women are all of different ages and generations, with different expectations of marriage and relationships.

Mrs. Kimble by Jennifer Haigh - Goodreads

Mrs. Kimble is a novel of family--not just one, but three. Throughout this book, we live the lives of three different women, and we learn of the turmoil that a single man can cause. Through her powerful use of the English language, her incredible grasp on human emotion, and her literary composition of dialogue, Jennifer Haigh weaves a tale of ...

Mrs. Kimble (P.S.): Jennifer Haigh: Amazon.com: Books

"Jennifer Haigh's Mrs. Kimble focuses a laser on that most irrational of decisions - whom to marry... Though the premise seems overly schematic, the result is an affecting tale of the power of a charismatic predator and the acquiescence of his victims.... Haigh is spare and low-key, masterful at delineating the quiet but revealing moment...

Summary and reviews of Mrs. Kimble by Jennifer Haigh

One after another, three women marry the same wrong man, each believing her life will be complete once she becomes Mrs. Ken Kimble. In a provocative first novel titled simply Mrs. Kimble, Jennifer Haigh uses portraits of these three characters to question why women think they have to marry. "Ken Kimble is what I call a serial marrier," Haigh says by phone from Boston, where she moved after ...
