Manson in his own words (Book, 1986) [WorldCat.org]

Manson In His Own Words. Manson In His Own Words is probably the worst title Emmons could've come up with, anyone that's heard Manson speak can tell you that he has been paraphrased. Regardless, the book expands on Charlie's background, growing up in prison, and finally, life with the family. Definitely an interesting read, but take it with a grain of salt.

There is really nothing in this book that you can not find in other previously written books about Charles Manson. Nuel Emmons himself was an ex-con who had spent time in prison with Manson. While he claimed in his bio that he had been convicted...

How accurate is the book 'Manson in His Own Words: The ...

This book, told from Manson's point of view, is surprisingly honest, but it is a long from a "tell-all" book where Manson takes responsibility for his misdeeds. I recommend it for people who have heard the story only from Bugliosi's "Helter Skelter," which tells Manson's story using the murders and the trials as the primary focal points.

Manson in His Own Words Quotes. From what I have seen throughout my life, the laws of the land are practiced only by the little guy. Those who have money and success abuse every law written and get away with it. I admit my reasoning comes from the wrong side of the tracks, but once these opinions are formed and reinforced a few times,...
