Magic On The Line. Book 7 in the Allie Beckstrom Series I took a deep breath, set a Disbursement—a headache this time—and drew a Sight spell. I pulled magic into it. The world broke into shades of old magic among vibrant new spells, bright neon dripping down buildings, pastels drifting along the empty street.

Magic on the Line is the seventh Allie Beckstrom novel. I love the world-building in these books; the system of magic involving underground cisterns, 'storm rods', and a price paid in pain is delightfully different. The books don't all hold up equally, mostly because Allie refuses to learn or grow through several of the middle books ...
