Marxism: Philosophy and Economics - Thomas ... - Google Books

Sowell's "Marxism" is by far the most frustrating book I have ever read on the subject of Marxian theory. Sowell is a self-described former Marxist, so I was expecting him to have a solid grasp of the basics of Marxian economics and philosophy. In that capacity, I was not disappointed.

Thomas Sowell's Marxism - Philosophy and Economics ...

Sowell is my favorite contemporary economist, and a great writer. Not all economists are great writers, look at Hayek, although to be fair Hayek's first language was German ANYWAY I wanted a book that simply told me what Marx and his economics and philosophy were all about, without adding modern interpretations into it.
