Mabel December 14, 2017 at 12:47 am. That this is an issue is sad. I can understand wanting to eat someone else's food, but you just don't do it.. In my office, we had a problem of people taking food meant for meetings partly because the conference room is small, so they put the food just outside the room (the conference rooms have glass walls, so it was pretty nervy).

my boss refused to send a dying coworker flowers, people keep stealing food for meetings, and more — Ask a Manager
