Myrna Loy (born Myrna Adele Williams; August 2, 1905 – December 14, 1993) was an American film, television and stage actress. Trained as a dancer, Loy devoted herself fully to an acting career following a few minor roles in silent films. She was originally typecast in exotic roles, often as a vamp or a woman of Asian descent, but her career prospects improved greatly following her portrayal of ...

Thanks for the thoughtful comment. I think I enjoy trainwrecks a bit too much (and Myrna Loy, naturally). While there’s something very sleazy about the sexual politics of The Barbarian (you’re supposed to cheer for him when he stops someone else from raping her and then cheer when rapes her later on?!), there’s also the last act where Loy suddenly sees it as romantic.
