Just finished taking NBME 15...I'll agree with everyone else as well and say that there were way more UWorld style questions. A lot more vague symptoms too (way less "buzzwords") and more questions (I thought) where I was wavering between a couple answers. A lot more questions than the other NBME that I just straight up guessed on.

16 is relatively new, and no NBME can predict your score in a vacuum anyway. There's not a ton of info about its predictiveness yet. I would say the absolute last time you can take a practice exam would be 3-5 days before your test and really, you probably should avoid them within a week of your test.
