Welcome To Edgewood Borough, Pittsburgh, Pa

Every boss (with the exception, of course, of Donald Trump) will say that one of the worst parts of their job is having to fire people. Even when you're letting someone go purely for financial reasons rather than performance, it's an unenviable task, as it obviously drastically changes the former employee's life and is among the most stressful events he or she can experience.

As we've seen more pictures from inside, I've become more relieved about the level of damage that's been done. It could have been so much worse. The high altar and statues all seem untouched and undamaged. The collapsing spire that came through the roof took out the Vatican II altar and some chairs mainly, neither of which are of any historical relevance to the cathedral.

[Megathread] Fire At Notre Dame Cathedral : Catholicism

While this isn't necessarily relevant to Canada per sé, the talking point on metacanada is that it was somehow related to Islam and I have no doubt that they will attempt to invade local Canadian subreddits with this baseless talking point in order to drum up hatred towards minorities.
