Ok. Finally Mary Mary Quite Contrary is finished. Surprisingly, it's as short as Snow White Blood Red. That's because it's straight to the point. You get to meet Mr Devil, and learn new things about Peter Pan, Brothers Grimm, Ladle Rat Rotten Hut, and of course you get to meet Mary ( whoever that is )

Mary Mary Quite Contrary (2000) About book: This is one of my favorite prequels, it was better than all the previous sequels simply because this seemed to be the darkest and most twisted out of all the prequels. There's no annoying characters and lame jokes. I love the blending of folklore legend and history to a fairytale story.
