I read Money Hungry by Sharon G. Flake and I loved it. I picked this book because I thought it was going to be about someone that always wants to get money. At the beginning it was, but I noticed as I read on that it was more about family situations. My favorite character was Raspberry, which is also the main character.

Money Hungry by Sharon G. Flake, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Flake (The Skin I'm In, 1998) gives a rock-solid portrayal of an inner-city life where money colors everything. At 13, Raspberry avidly collects opportunities to make a little green wherever she can find them. Readers see her obsession driving her to peddle rotten chocolate and spare pencils long before they learn of her history of living on the street or the tenuousness of her home security ...
