What lured me to One Plus One Equals Blue was the fact that the two main characters both have synesthesia, which I find fascinating and magical. Though One Plus One Equals Blue did not turn out to focus heavily on synesthesia itself, this novel is still a great read, and one sure to please middle grade readers.

One Plus One Equals Blue has made me come to the conclusion that realistic middle grade books are not for me. And that's okay! I'm not the target audience anyway, obviously. However, I don't think 12-year-old Stormy would have liked this book much either. One Plus One Equals Blue starts out by introducing us to Basil.
