Old Magic was my first published book and has remained a favourite with readers in countries around the world, having translations in fourteen international languages. It is a young adult paranormal fantasy with romance, adventure and time-travel with one of the original strong female leads for this genre.

Old Magic by Marianne Curley - Goodreads

Old Magic by Marianne Curley has everything, curses, romance, and time travel. The point of view also switches between Kate and Jarrod, making the story that much more interesting. I would recommend this book and the Guardians of Time Trilogy (also by Marianne Curley) to any fantasy book lover.

Old Magic(4) By: Marianne Curley. I lost sympathy for Mr. Garret when he started producing enough self-pity to drown in. And I know he's become gutless lately, but to accuse and convict on the face of one lousy piece of suspect evidence is truly pathetic. Jarrod apparently agrees. His lips snap together as he inhales deeply through suddenly ...

Old Magic book by Marianne Curley - Thriftbooks

While Old Magic's plot is semi-intriguing, the cover's promise that the two main characters share an "undeniable passion," is never realized. The romance is tepid. At best. And worse: while the main character is 16, she reads like a tween which makes it further difficult to buy the star-crossed lovers theory.
