Basically I had to screenshot every single slide on the marine net course, and then reference them as I was taking the test. I think I have most if not all of my screenshots on my computer and I can e-mail them to you if you'd like. I too looked all over the internet for the answers before I had to resort to this painstaking method.

I've taken dozens of MarineNet course, and none of them required a proctor. Then again, the ones I've taken are general subject annual training-type stuff, plus some Rosetta Stone. The MCI-type courses that need proctors don't require any huge thing. My units have always just used S-3 reps or division training NCOs. It's not like the SATs.
