Moonlight Secrets Fear Street Nights

Moonlight Secrets is typical Fear Street fare updated for the 21st century. Meant to be part of a trilogy, it doesn't do a spectacular job of standing alone; there's no real ending to the plot--someone dies and the characters hope that'll put a stop to the shenanigans, but it's abundantly clear that their hopes are in vain and you'll have to buy the next book if you want to know what's really ...

I never thought about the books again, until late one night I typed in "Fear Street" in the search engine at Overstock.com. That's where I found the "Fear Street Nights" trilogy. "Moonlight Secrets" is under 200 pages and is an easier and faster read than the new supernatural style teen books that are out today.
