Nightshade (Gatiss novel) - Wikipedia

Doctor Who: Nightshade by Mark Gatiss was an incredibly dark adventure with a most beloved character (in a version I'm entirely unfamiliar with) and his companion (again I have no history with Ace). Centered around a small village, The Doctor and Ace are up against a foe that is ruthless in its carnage and hunger.

Gatiss is a great admirer of Nigel Kneale's Quatermass serials and films, which is evident in much of his work. In this novel, he based the character of Professor Nightshade on Bernard Quatermass. The straight-to-video P.R.O.B.E. series of films, written by Gatiss in the mid-'90s, drew many of their themes from Quatermass.
