Review: I don't know how she did it but, Heather Allen surprised me with this one; especially after her other book Just Breathe. She can write a good adult novel, that's for sure. Not so much on the youth novels. Was it good enough for five stars? In my opinion, no. It was good enough for me to finish it the same day I started it though.

Her Gentle Giant, Part 1: No Regrets (2010) About book: I didn't really get why Rachel kept turning down Eli when he asked her out, so when she finally agreed I was happy. I found it interesting how each of them admitted to being jealous and brought up that fact to the other and how Eli's job had the potential to push buttons for them.
