In the case of this volume, the starting point was the artwork. Theresa Derwin, the instigator of 'Once Bitten', saw the painting by Stephen Cooney and thought it would make the ideal cover for a horror anthology. The fifteen stories that finally ended up between the covers all have theme of love or obsession.

Once Bitten edited by Steve Lewis (book review). : SFcrowsnest

There's a full moon over Los Angeles, and for police psychologist Jamie Beaverbook that can only mean one thing: the crazies will be out in force. But when he is called into the station for a consult in the middle of the night, even the jaded Beaverbrook can't believe his ears. The innocent-looking girl in the interview room doesn't look a day over fifteen, yet the cops say Terry Ferriman was ...
