O: A Presidential Novel - Wikipedia

O: A Presidential Novel by Anonymous – review. O has about as much suspense as the Washington telephone directory. Actually, less: the DC phone book would at least hold out the promise of some interesting characters. This is the third great weakness of O: its characterisation is as wooden as its prose.

O: A Presidential Novel, by Anonymous. O is at best a spectral presence. He's distant and aloof and, surprise, doesn't suffer fools. Which in this company at least puts him in a perpetual funk: " 'Johnson City seems a little soft to me,' he suggested to Regan after reviewing the latest phone bank results for Iowa.
