Literary Flits: Nine Kinds of Naked by Tony Vigorito

If you could sum up Nine Kinds of Naked in three words, what would they be? surprising, soothing, absurd What other book might you compare Nine Kinds of Naked to and why? I don't know if there's any story to which I could compare Nine Kinds of Naked, but Tony Vigorito's writing is in the same vein as Tom Robbins.

Nine Kinds of Naked (Audiobook) by Tony Vigorito | Audible.com

by Tony Vigorito My rating: 4 of 5 stars Nine Kinds Of Naked is bizarre! Essentially it's a fantastically surreal tale of chaos theory in the aftermath of a tornado, but with such an incredible array of characters and interconnected events that I was equally as gripped as bewildered for much of the time.

"Nine Kinds of Naked is a philosophical examination of the Butterfly Effect and the proposition that love is indestructible. It's a tale of consequence, causation, and the logical fallacy of post hoc ergo propter hoc. It's like scuffling with a naked and unreasonably cheerful version of yourself in a time not of your own choosing.
