New and Selected Poems: 1962-2012 offers an excellent selection of Charles Simic's poetry; however, I wish it included one omission: information about the "nearly three dozen revisions" to previously published poems that its front flap states the book contains. _____

NEW AND SELECTED POEMS: 1962-2012 by Charles Simic

Collections of new and selected poems can show us a lot about a poet, especially those spanning a half-century career. This collection, for example, shows that Charles Simic has suffered from insomnia. For decades. Though suffered may not be the right word, as it seems to be a part of his creative process; in a way perhaps he benefits from it ...
