About the 2nd Edition. This 2nd edition condenses the content of the original My Book of Centuries, keeping all of the elements, but shortening each century to a single two-page spread. This is more in line with how Charlotte's students marked time and makes the book thinner, more portable, and easier to handle.

My Family and Other Animals (1956) is an autobiographical work by British naturalist Gerald Durrell. It tells of the years that he lived as a child with his siblings and widowed mother on the Greek island of Corfu between 1935 and 1939. It describes the life of the Durrell family in a humorous manner, and explores the fauna of the island. It is the first and most well-known of Durrell's 'Corfu ...
