Community Reviews. Murder of a Needled Knitter is the seventeenth full-length installment in Denise Swanson's Scumble River Mystery series. While this book isn't terrible, there's not much to recommend it, either. Swanson's setup is cute; because the story takes place on a cruise ship, it's essentially a locked-room mystery.

review 1: I am fairly new to Scumble River and every story is like meeting a new friend. In Murder of a Needled Knitter we not only get to watch our favorite couple solve a murder with very little official help while they are on their honeymoon, we get to travel on their first cruise with them and we are not the only ones.
