Just Like Me, Only Better is just what most reviews here, on goodreads, and Barnes and Noble say it is: a light read. Light read is code for "eh it's alright but definitely not something you recommend" But Penguin publishing is one greedy publishing company (I wish I'd know about their greed and drama problems with Amazon before I bought this book.

At Character Like Me, we feel like that affects the way we view ourselves and the way that others view us, too. To help change this, we've made a space for minorities to speak out. If you feel like a group you belong to is not being represented well or if you just want to see more characters like you, we want to know.
