Wolf, Allan. New Found Land (2004) New Found Land is an epic novel in free verse chronicling the Lewis and Clark Expedition of 1804 to the west coast and back. It is more than just a historical fiction adventure book. The author uses 14 different characters to tell the story, each from his own perspective in somewhat of a diary/journal format.

Allan Wolf is a member of the national touring company Poetry Alive!, and is able to recite hundreds of poems from memory. Perhaps it is unsurprising, then, that he chose to write this novel in poetic form. As he says, "During the four years it took to research and write NEW FOUND LAND, my head was constantly crowded with the novel's fourteen ...
