Mystery Peter Straub

After reading a string of bad books, Peter Straub's 1990 thriller, Mystery — the second in his acclaimed Blue Rose trilogy — was quite the refresher. Taking place in two different eras (the '60s and the '20s) And two perfectly evocative locations (a Caribbean island and an island near Wisconsin), this is a murder mystery/coming of age tale unlike any I have read before.

Mystery, a book by Peter Straub | Book review - SFBook.com

Order MYSTERY here. This is Horror's Bob Pastorella challenged me to a marathon Peter Straub retrospective that would be held over all 2017 in last December. It seemed like a great idea at the time. Straub is a beloved figure in the horror community and somehow convinced Stephen King of all people to co-write a book with him and I thought it was intriguing.
