Like most writers I know, I write because I have to. Not the kind of have to where you're going to die if you don't. Or even the kind of have to because if you don't you can't pay the bills and you'll starve to death and so will your family and then you'll be thrown out on the street and you'll be homeless. That kind of have to doesn't apply to most writers because the large majority of us don ...
