Review of "Mornings on Horseback" by David McCullough | My ...

Mornings on Horseback is the first book I've read by renowned historian David McCullough (hopefully the first of several more). Meticulously researched and crammed with information and fascinating anecdotes, Mornings on Horseback serves as a kind of origin story of Theodore Roosevelt. McCullough answers the question of how the frail, asthmatic ...

Mornings on Horseback - Wikipedia

The biographer of the Brooklyn Bridge and the Panama Canal has written a marvelous book, now, about the making of an exceptional being—and nothing that has appeared before, including Edmund Morris' recent The Rise of Theodore Roosevelt, diminishes its interest or freshness or emotional force. Indeed, those familiar with the story of the puny, sickly boy who made himself over by will power ...
