My Life After Now Jessica

My Life After Now, after being recommended countless times to me by certain people, I knew I had to read it, because I knew I would love it. My Life After Now covered a lot of really tough issues, like HIV. I actually didn't know much about HIV other than it was somehow related to AIDs, which is really serious.

My Life After Now by Jessica Verdi - Goodreads

MY LIFE AFTER NOW was a quick enjoyable read. Jessica Verdi writes with great voice. Although Lucy wasn't always likable, her thoughts and actions often made sense for a 16/17 year old in a situation for which she is completely unprepared. The minor characters were somewhat clichéd and some of the dialogue felt more middle school than high school.

It wasn't that he was being inappropriate, it was just more that he obviously didn't view me as a person, let alone a scared person with actual feelings. He just saw me as yet another scientific specimen there for his own experimenting. I squeezed my eyes shut, cringing the entire time." — Jessica Verdi, My Life After Now
