My Name Is Will Jess

My Name Is Will presents a parallel narrative in alternating chapters. One story line follows Willie Shakespeare Greenburg, a slacker, pothead graduate student at California-Santa Cruz as he (sort of) works on his master's thesis which will advance the thesis, based on one line of one sonnet, that Shakespeare was Catholic.

Jess Winfield: My Name Is Will. My Name Is Will: A Novel Of Sex, Drugs, And Shakespeare reclaims the bawdy Bard and the scholars who love him by pairing a slightly implausible story of the young playwright with a contemporary college-campus escapade, for an explicit tale that will never be assigned in high-school English classes.

Book Review | 'My Name Is Will,' by Jess Winfield - The ...

Jess Winfield, in his comic novel, "My Name Is Will: A Novel of Sex, Drugs, and Shakespeare" (Twelve, 291 pages, $23.99), writes sex scenes that Mr. Savage would reject out of hand. So will readers, and this is a problem because, as the subtitle suggests, sex plays no small role in the story he has to tell.

Reduced Shakespeare: Jess Winfield's 'My Name Is Will'

From across the pond and across the centuries, the words of Stratford-upon-Avon's most famous resident have never rung with such screwball truthiness as in Jess Winfield's My Name Is Will: A Novel of Sex, Drugs, and Shakespeare. Winfield, who as co-founder of the hilariously funny Reduced ...

My Name Is Will is the story of two Wills who have more in common than one would think at a first glance, because really – isn't it almost sacrilege to suggest that a 1986's pot-head and wanna-be thesis-writer should have anything at all in common with the greatest bard in English history? At the surface, one would think so, but then, how ...

'My Name Is Will' by Jess Winfield - Los Angeles Times

My intention was to give it to Tom Schaller or Larry Kreger who lead and chair our MUM Shakespeare Club. There's so much sex in the book that I'm rather leary to do this now. It's kind of interesting the way it's written because the chapters take turns dealing with two parallel coming of age stories.
