On Such A Full Sea

On Such a Full Sea shows a beautiful display of language. Lee illustrates here he can masterfully turn a sentence and write scenes that are enthralling. The writing is top-notch, but it doesn't all come together as one might hope. Largely, I enjoyed the writing more than the novel itself.

Fiction: 'On Such a Full Sea,' by Chang-rae Lee - The ...

Chang-rae Lee's On Such A Full Sea is so elegiac that it almost collapses into a morass of sorrow, yet it's so well crafted it's impossible not to see the story to its end. With his latest novel, Lee creates a world far into the future, where the boundaries between countries have frayed and a semi-dystopian state has arisen. Although Orwellian themes linger in the background, the book ...
