Summary and reviews of Mozart's Last Aria by Matt Rees

Rees' latest marks a distinct departure from the Omar Yussef detective series as it combines mystery and historical intrigue with a timeless love story. Thousands of words have been written about the late-18th-century musical genius, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, a child prodigy who, with his sister, toured much of Europe.

MOZART'S LAST ARIA by Matt Rees | Kirkus Reviews

All the book's characters are real historical figures. But Matt Rees points out in his Author's Note that he changed some of the events of their lives for his fictional purposes. What do you think of that? Did Mozart's Last Aria enhance your knowledge of classical music and make you want to listen to it more?
