Missing Out: In Praise of the Unlived Life by Adam Phillips – review. It's a fertile but inherently slippery zone to work in, especially if you're trying to construct a densely argued thesis, as Phillips is. With psychology not being quite a hard science, and literature – even King Lear – not being quite life,...

Missing Out Quotes Showing 1-25 of 25 "The wish to be understood may be our most vengeful demand, may be the way we hang on, as asults, to our grudge against our mothers; the way we never let our mothers off the hook for their not meeting our every need.

Missing Out Quotes by Adam Phillips - Goodreads

The risk, in a way, is that the omniscience about what one is getting out of — a relationship, a commitment, an arrangement — is matched by an omniscience about what one is getting out for. This belief in our own omniscience, and the role it plays in our decision making, is one of Missing Out's fundamental themes.
