Never Miss a Chance (Kellington #2) A duke's daughter isn't supposed to court scandal in Regency England. She isn't supposed to involve herself in controversial causes. And she most especially isn't supposed to expect love in a ton marriage. But Lady Elizabeth isn't just any duke's daughter. She's a Kellington.

The story has some heat, and that is perfectly timed to set up the great conflict and struggle. Each of the Kellington's will find their happy ever after by the end of this series: and it is a delightful read. If you aren't certain about historical romances, or you simply adore them: give this series a chance.
