Oceans Apart 1 Kindle Edition

So, here's what I think, this book was a short read, and it's part of a series, so far there are three books, 4th in the works. The character buildup was nice, I wish that it had more of a background, we learned about Tristan's upbringing, but not much of Virginia, I know shes a paralegal, but tristan was saying a lawyer, so I got confused by that, cause it's not the same, aside from a ...

I expected a feel-good book. I know several families that have adopted “international” children. The children are loved and well cared for. I find it disconcerting that anyone would treat a child the way Mary/Hien was treated. I am delighted that she was reunited with her mother. Oceans Apart is the Memoir of Mary Mustard Reed.
