I found the book fascinating, it gave me an insight into real political life. The treatment of Julia Gillard as a woman was appalling. At the beginning of the book she was very circumspect on her relationships with key figures primarily Kevin Rudd, but as the book progressed this changed dramatically. The book gave me a mental picture of the young Julia Gillard, her family background and her rise ...

My Story: Julia Gillard in conversation (Adelaide Writers' Week 2015)

"Julia Gillard's memoir is interesting, thought-provoking and unexpectedly candid. In its juxtaposition of large events and small piquant details, My Story is an honest and compelling account of what life is like at the highest political levels: Gillard is an engaging and incisive guide." Jacqueline Kent, The Sydney Morning Herald
